It is located 80 kilometers from the Bilaspur town, 108 kilometers north of Chandigarh, 36 kilometers south from Nangal and 20 kilometers from Bhakhra Dam.

The ‘Shakti Peeth’ is sited 1219 meters above the sea level. The nearest airport to reach this place of pilgrimage is Chandigarh airport ; and the nearest railway stations are Anandpur Sahib and Nangal in Punjab

Sri Naina Devi

Nestled in the serene hills of Himachal Pradesh, Sri Naina Devi Temple is one of the 51 Shakti Peethas, revered for its deep spiritual significance. Dedicated to Goddess Naina Devi, the temple stands atop a hill, offering breathtaking views and a peaceful atmosphere for devotees and seekers alike.

Legend has it that this is where Goddess Sati's eyes (Naina) fell, making it a powerful center of divine energy. Pilgrims climb the sacred path or take a ropeway to reach the temple, immersing themselves in devotion and tranquility.

As you embark on this retreat, prepare for a soulful journey filled with divine blessings, scenic beauty, and inner peace.
